Wyoming City Clerk Heidi Isakson Chosen as Michigan Association of Municipal Clerks as Clerk of the Year

Mayor Jack A. Poll Declares June 20 City Clerk Heidi Isakson Day in Wyoming

WYOMING, Mich., June 18, 2013 – Wyoming City Clerk Heidi A. Isakson has been named Clerk of the Year by the Michigan Association of Municipal Clerks.

In recognition of the award and appreciation for Isakson, Wyoming Mayor Jack A. Poll delivered a proclamation at the June 17 City Council meeting declaring June 20 “City Clerk Heidi Isakson Day” in the City of Wyoming.

“Heidi is an outstanding clerk,” said Wyoming Mayor Jack A. Poll. “She goes above and beyond in customer service for the residents of Wyoming, runs the Clerk’s office with professionalism and keeps City Council meetings on track and running smoothly with her deep knowledge of city operations and protocol. We are proud of and grateful for her dedication to the city of Wyoming.”

Isakson was appointed clerk in the City of Wyoming in 2001. As city clerk, Isakson conducts elections, administers council meetings, creates and preserves public records, and provides public notices. She works diligently to increase voter registration, awareness and participation and encourages understanding of the roll of the City Council and local issues.

Isakson has developed her own election inspector training manual to help educate election inspectors of every age. She visits Wyoming high schools several times a year to hold mock elections, in which she demonstrates the voting equipment and encourages students to not only register to vote, but to understand the roll of the City Council and local issues.

Located in the lobby of City Hall, the City Clerk’s Office is the primary point of contact for the public and staff regarding City Council actions. To contact the Wyoming Clerk’s Office, call 530-7296.
